

UEP CERTIFIED CERTIFICATION

Hickman's Egg Ranch, Inc.

The above named company has successfully passed an animal welfare audit conducted by Validus during calendar year 2016.

Having passed the audit confirms that the company has met the requirements established by UEP in order to be recognized as an UEP Certified Company and has implemented UEP's Guidelines endorsed by FMI and NNCR.

This Certification authorizes the company to include the United Egg Producers Certified logo on the company's egg packaging and authorizes the use of the logo upon egg packaging of their retail and foodservice accounts when requested.

This certificate may also be used to identify eggs traded within the industry as having been produced by an UEP Certified Company and expires on 12/31/2017.

The Certification number 267 has been assigned to the company.
